First Generation

1. James Reuben CLEWETT Clouette was born in 1810 in England. He came to America in 1829, lived in Canada for a couple of years, then in 1831, he was hired by Gabriel Franchere of the American Fur Company, to come to Minnesota as voyageur and clerk. Speaking not a word of French, and nobody around him speaking any English, he was soon compelled to learn both French and Sioux. He was, however, the only person who could read or write, he maintained all the journals and books for the company at many of the trading posts in the Minnesota area.

In 1836 he was employed by Joseph R. Brown, at Sheyenne (ND). He had been in the Dakota country since three years prior, with Hazen Mooers. In 1838 he was at Grey Cloud Island again with Brown.

In 1839, he moved to St Paul, living with Abraham Perry, and marrying Perry's daughter, Rose Ann, in the first Christian marriage in St. Paul, in April 1839. Soon afterward, he purchased the claim of the mysterious "Johnson" at lower landing, then selling it to Norman Kittson and purchasing the property of Joseph Labisiniere on Jackson Street Hill, where they lived until 1851, when they moved to White Bear, MN. He lived in Little Canada in 1849.

James Reuben CLEWETT Clouette and Rose Anne PERRY Perret were married in Apr 1839 in St Paul, Ramsey, MN. Rose Anne PERRY Perret, daughter of Abraham PERRY and Marie Anne BOURQUIN, was born (date unknown). on the death record of her daughter Lydia Ann Melancon it state Rose was born at Red Lake, MN
